Newsletter of the McLean Art Society

December 2021

from the co-president

"Eye of the Beholder" is now in the rear-view mirror and it was a resounding success thanks to Lori Lisiecki and a core of dedicated, talented volunteers. Thirty-one artists participated in the show with eleven award winners. Thanks to Larry Danforth for putting forth Walker Chapel Church as a location for the show and for acting as liaison to the venue. The past year has been one unlike no other--totally unpredictable and unprecedented. We managed three successful shows. "The Show Must Go On" at the McLean Community Center in March was chaired by Ginger Sanaie, with 20 artists participating, and juried by Jes Mickey. In October we returned to the MPA "Artfest," shepherded by Jane Counce and Judy Landry. Our expanded tent with more paintings than ever was a showstopper. We finished the year with "The Eye of the Beholder." Our monthly artist programs for the entire year were by "Zoom." Zoom--how would we have carried on without it. Our presenters included internationally known watercolorists and regional and local artists. Dorothy Hassan did an amazing job as program chair. Although most of our sales venues have not reopened, we have returned to the Spring Hill Recreation Center. We all owe Carol Higgs a big thank you for keeping up with this. 2022 will bring changes to the group. I will be stepping down as Co-President. Anna Katalkina as President will bring new ideas and energy as we navigate 2022. It promises to be an exciting year!

Cheers!

Ray Goodrow
